

Butler Public Schools Alert system

As a new employee, you have been added to the Honeywell Instant Alert[®] system. Attached are the directions for you to log in and set your preferences. You are urged to do so as soon as possible. This system is the only method by which we alert staff and students of closings, delays and other important announcements.

If you have trouble signing in or have any questions, please see your supervisor.

